

MB111 - Beginning Painting Animals for Children, Saturdays, March 2, 9, 16, 23 (8:30 - 10:00 a.m.)

Students age 8 & up. Prerequisite: Drawing Animals
Students will use color and shapes to illustrate creatures with fins, fur, and feathers. Students will need 8 photos of birds, fish, and furry creatures. We will work from these photos in acrylic paints. Materials: #2 pencil, and drawing pad 8.5" x 11" or larger.
Instructor: Pat Bereskin - Class Fee: $125

EH113 - Drawing the Figure, Saturdays January 26 - February 23 (1:30-4:30 p.m.)

Students will explore basic anatomy, structure, gesture and value while working from the nude model. Single pose for the duration of the five classes will allow students to slow down in order to develop their observations and hone their mark making. The drawing process is broken down into approachable steps and taught through demonstrations and critiques. All skill levels welcome.
Instructor: Evanny Henningsen
Class Fee: $250 Material List will be provided upon request or at registration.

EH114 - Sight-Size Cast Painting Saturdays, January 26 - February 23 (9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.)

Cast painting is the subsequent step after cast drawing. Utilizing a controlled setting and subject matter students will cover blocking in proportions and developing shifts in value to create an accurately rendered painting. The exercise will help strengthen observation abilities and cover the basics of working in oil.
Instructor: Evanny Henningsen
Class Fee: $250 - Materials provided.
